Tasting notes

This lieu-dit is located immediately to the south of the premier cru of Clos des Réas, a Gros family monopole, and captures the nuances of Vosne incredibly well for a village wine. The nose offers plenty of bright summer berries, framed with a touch of gravel and just a dusting of freshly ground black pepper. The lively palate is a bundle of positive energy with a core of crisp, ripe cherries, a lick of sweet spice and a beautiful clean finish of chilled blueberries and crushed stone. Clearly punching well above its weight! Drink from 2016.
