Tasting notes

On the nose this beautifully balanced wine has aromas of cherry and dark plum with hints of spice and sweet smoke. A silken texture and invigorating freshness on the palate provide a framework for the succulent ripe red fruits while intriguing notes of wild herbs and dark chocolate adds depth and mystery. Medium bodied with a fine structure and a persistent finish, this wine will age very well. The smallest harvest in 50 years, it was a year of bizarre weather patterns; a wet spring, hail and torrid summer heat. Luckily good water reserves in the soil protected the vines through the worst of the heat and allowed for Nebbiolo with great promise. Drink from 2018.

About the producer

Known as the “Genius of Neive”, Bruno Giacosa’s mastery of Nebbiolo was widely recognised amongst wine lovers. His single-vineyards Barolo and Barbaresco set new standards for the whole regions, allowing a unique blend of traditional and cutting-edge methods. His research of perfection was passed on to his daughter Bruna, who has been at the helm of the estate since 2006, blessing us with some of the most electrifying wines in our portfolio. From the floral Barbera to the tensest Nebbiolos, Bruno Giacosa’s wines are an incredible delight to discover.
