Tasting notes

---

A vibrant, medium bodied Bordeaux with smooth redcurrant and blackberry fruit flavours and a hint of freshly ground black pepper on the finish balanced by a fine structure and lovely freshness. Drink this very drinkable claret over the next few years.

About the producer

Located thirteen kilometers from Bordeaux on the right bank of the Garonne river lies the estate, which is part of the family wine-farm Château Haut-Calens. In the 1970s new owner Albert Yung reconstructed the vineyard and cellars, which were re-built in a modern way to produce the highest quality wine possible from the estate. Renowned for a delicate texture, elegance and full body this is a brand renowned as a top wine.
