Tasting notes

A remarkably complex bouquet of lime, lemon, sea shell and iodine with floral, spicy notes and a discreet touch of wood. The palate is full-bodied and powerful with massive richness and concentration. A hugely impressive wine with amazing depth, extraordinary complexity and a knockout finish. Drink from 2020.

About the producer

William Fèvre is one of Chablis's most respected domaines and is credited with putting this region of Chardonnay vines, William began purchasing parcels of the region's Premier and Grand Cru vineyards that had fallen out of fashion. He quickly grew the estate to an impressive 50 hectares and established a fine reputation for his white Burgundy. He retired in 1998 and sold the estate to négociant Bouchard, who installed Didier Séguier as winemaker.
