Tasting notes

Supple and smooth textured with a lively bouquet of cassis and strawberries, this is a harmonious and refreshing wine with flowing palate of sweet plums with hints of leather, spice and wild herbs. Fine tannins and an elegant mineral character provide the perfect balance to the smooth, red plum and dark cassis fruit flavours. Drink from 2016.

About the producer

Spending any time with Nicolas Potel in Burgundy can't help but to make even the most ardent of critics a lifelong convert. Nicolas is another man of boundless energy but his approach is very organic, adhering to the natural rhythms wherever possible. Such an unforced, careful, natural and sensitive approach is reflected perfectly in his wine and Nicolas has brought a breath of fresh air to Burgundy over the last decade and more. Quite simply, he remains one of Burgundy's brightest talents.
