Tasting notes

This excellent village Meursault shows as well as a premier cru. The aromas are full of green apples, white peach and a touch of butter and smoky nuttiness. The palate is full and round but with plenty of crisp acidity and a lively zing. Green apples dominate followed by very subtle tones of white acacia and a good minerality on the finish. This is a delicious wine, perfect for early drinking from release. Drink from 2014.

About the producer

Nestled unassumingly on a quiet street in beautiful Nuits St Georges, Faiveley, headed by the suave and welcoming Erwan, is quite an operation. One of the truly great, historic Domaine of Burgundy, with stunning cellars and many glorious holdings from Gevrey to Pommard, via some brilliant Grands Crus, Erwan and his new team have everything that a Burgundian could desire. Traditionally, the Faiveley style was uncompromising but while still unquestionably making some of the longest-lived wines in the Côte, there is today far more finesse and precision in evidence, pointing to a more careful and up-to-date approach.
