Tasting notes

Pézerolles was another vineyard that was hit hard by the hail and the resulting wine has far more punch and masculinity to it than is habitually the case. There are lovely liquorice notes alongside the pepper but less perfume and fragrance than in the past. A fine, soothing baritone rather than a sprightly young tenor. Drink from 2017.

About the producer

Domaine de Montille is one of Burgundy's greatest estates. The wines are made for ageing but in recent years, since Hubert's son Etienne has taken over, the Domaine has moved towards expressing greater aromatic potential in the wines. The Domaine has moved progressively towards organic and now biodynamic methods working in closer harmony with nature. The wines still benefit from ageing and develop an abundance of complexity as they mature.
