Tasting notes

The Mâconnais was largely spared the devastating effects of hail but here too a small crop resulted from the cool and wet conditions at flowering. This cuvée remains one of the more mineral-laden and tightly-wound in the region and really comes into its own after a couple of years in bottle. Drink from 2015.

About the producer

One of the great estates in Burgundy, Domaine de Montille produces incredibly elegant and understated wines. Established by Hubert de Montille, who inherited a few Volnay vines in 1951, the estate now comprises 17 ha. The wines had a reputation for requiring a long time to reach maturity but under Étienne de Montille, with the help of Chef de Cave Brian Sieve, the aromatic complexity of the wines has been brought to the fore.
