

2012 Riesling Grand Cru Wiebelsberg

Domaine Boeckel, Alsace, France

Product details

---

Vintage:	2012	Drinking:	Now 2030
Producer:	Domaine Boeckel	Alcohol:
Region:	Alsace	Variety:	Riesling
Country:	France

Tasting notes

---

A dry wine, representative of its type, very floral with a delicate fruitiness. Finesse with mineral nuances, long in the mouth, high quality and noble body

About the producer

---

Founded in 1853, Domaine Boeckel is now run by the 5th generation of winemakers, Jean-Daniel and Thomas Boeckel. A true Alsatian gem, the Domaine stretches over 23ha of vineyards now farmed according to organic viticulture. Their pure, mineral and elegant wines are a great way to start exploring the depth and potential of Alsace. From the only vineyard in the world to produce Sylvaner with Grand Cru status, to their concentrated and powerful Rieslings to bewitching Gewürztraminer, there is plenty for any wine aficionado to love. Those are wines perfect to experiment with food-wise.

