About the producer

Paul Buisse is a family business, having been passed through four generations from Paul's great grandfather Eugène in 1905 through to Paul Buisse who took over the family business in the 1980s. What started as an efficient business selling table wine by the barrel evolved to produce one of the very first superior red wines to be sold by the litre in returnable bottles with serigraphic labels. Today the winery is run by the Chainier family, who bring a new chapter to Paul Buisse.
