Tasting notes

A wine with character and depth, this wine has a bouquet of bright cassis and redcurrant fruits with delicate hints of lavender, sweet herbs and roses. The palate is lively and refreshing with beautifully integrated fine tannins and an elegant mineral note which leads to a long, pure finish. Drink from 2016.

About the producer

Spending any time with Nicolas Potel in Burgundy can't help but to make even the most ardent of critics a lifelong convert. Nicolas is another man of boundless energy but his approach is very organic, adhering to the natural rhythms wherever possible. Such an unforced, careful, natural and sensitive approach is reflected perfectly in his wine and Nicolas has brought a breath of fresh air to Burgundy over the last decade and more. Quite simply, he remains one of Burgundy's brightest talents.
