Tasting notes

This is a calm, focused wine with its bouquet already well-formed around an interplay of flowers, white nuts and soft green pear fruit. Focused and well defined, there is an elegant breeziness to its movement on the palate and then a finish defined by its minerality that reminds you of its origins. There is no drama here, just a sense of ability and accomplishment. Drink from 2017.

About the producer

The vision of Anne-Claude Leflaive in the 1990s took this Puligny Montrachet Domaine to the heights of white wine production, not only in Burgundy but in the rest of the world. Today, her nephew Brice de La Morandière - who has had a successful career running multinational companies - continues her philosophy of organic, biodynamic viticulture, bringing Chardonnay grapes to their best possible expression in Grand Cru and Premier Cru climates, where the terroir has been restored to health by natural practices.
