Tasting notes

When Virgillio, who founded the estate with his wife Rita, was asked which wine was his favourite he would respond resolutely: 'La Syrah, per sempre?' (the Syrah, forever and ever?). There is so much to admire in this beautifully crafted, hedonistic wine. Rich and silky, but very serious, there are layers of peppered violets, kirsch and vanilla spice. Intense and compelling; the wine lingers on the palate revealing a multifaceted, vibrant character and a remarkable texture. Radiant, breathtaking and undeniably classy, this 2013 Syrah will certainly keep 'per sempre'.

About the producer

Founded in 1984, Tua Rita was instrumental in establishing the 'cult' status of the earliest Super Tuscans. Nestled in the 'metalliferous hills' of the Maremma in the coastal region of Tuscany, the original plot of 2 hectares has now grown to 30 and Tua Rita have carved out a reputation for being some of the best producers of Cabernet and Merlot in Tuscany. Today, second generation winemaker Stefano Frascolla continues to push the boundaries of Italian wine, experimenting with new varieties and techniques, and recent releases of these wines are the best they have ever been.
