Tasting notes

Roasted beef, chipped asphalt and black currant conspire for a very deep and brooding but not overly powerful nose on this bottling from winemaker Trey Fletcher. The palate pops with thyme, rosemary, dried flowers and pepper, with the tangy black plum fruit only emerging with patience. Built to last.

About the producer

The Millers soon realised that the natural conditions were ideal for viticulture. In their Region 1, they soon began growing grapes to produce their primary products: Bien Nacido Pinot Noir, Chardonnay, Pinot Blanc and Syrah. These wines all benefitted from the cooler Californian climate. The Bien Nacido vineyard was the first in California to produce Syrah wine.

Bien Nacido's Winemaker Trey Fletcher is young, passionate and extremely ambitious; a protégé of Ted Lemon at the world-class Littorai in Sonoma. This is undoubtedly "now one of the hottest wineries in California" and any discerning wine lover should take note of these superb, handcrafted wines whose pedigree is simply unparalleled. Combining Bien Nacido's terroir and the skills of the winemakers has resulted in the production of truly unique wines. Browse our range of Bien Nacido wines online today.
