Tasting notes

Incredible power and intensity, with enormous concentration of fruit and complexity. Rich mouthfeel with firm tannins and firm structure. Drinking this within the next 10 years would be a crime; the first vintage of Belle Hélène was made in 1997 and on retasting in early 2009, it is still too young to touch and with no development of secondary aromas yet. Produced from typical Côte-Rôtie terroir, this displays incredibly richness and minerality. Drink 2014-2034
