Tasting notes

This excellent Verdicchio really is a class act. Scented with peach, pear and rocky minerals, it is immediately incredibly fresh and appealing. The palate is layered with conference pear and white blossom notes, a touch of soft spice and a mineral freshness that carries throughout. There is considerable concentration and structure alongside a delicious pithy, salty quality which leads to the long and elegant finish. This marvelous wine would work well with scallops, mussels or softly spiced Asian dishes.
