Tasting notes

At the 2014 Italian Tasting, one of the wines was Cantine Lunae's Etichetta Nera (Black Label). Something a little different, it stood out for many of the guests attending. All of the classic zesty lemon, melon and floral aromas that you get from Vermentino are revved up a few notches, so the bouquet explodes out of the glass. This is super clean, with crisp minerality and freshness that balance out the extra oomph perfectly. This is a stonking wine that is beautiful on its own, but will stand up to light lunches, BBQs, fruity summer salads and entertaining your guests. The Etichetta Nera is a people pleaser and will be perfect throughout Spring and the summer months!

About the producer

Nestled on the Ligurian border with Tuscany, near the remains of the ancient Roman city of Luni, Cantine Lunae has been pushing boundaries of Ligurian wines since Paolo Bosoni took the helm of the winery in 1966. His family's dedication to quality is helping to create incredibly vibrant and intense wines from local grape varieties which are a true distillate of their soils, Mediterranean climate and their respectful viticulture. From the mineral expression of Vermentino to spicy Albarola, there is plenty to discover and experiment with their range.
