Tasting notes

Vivid, almost ethereal purity in this 2013 Le Mont Sec which is equally poised and taught on the palate. Concentrated to the extent that there is an almost viscous texture, there is incredible tension, seamlessly interwoven with an electric acidity. Serious, pithy extract combines with the superb lemon and apple fruit core, crackling with energy from start to finish. Dry, powerful and brooding, this is Vouvray Sec at its very best ? combining texture, minerality and supreme fruit purity.

About the producer

Few producers can claim a level of influence to almost identify with their appellation – one of those is Domaine Huet. This iconic estate has been one of the standard-bearers of Vouvray since 1928. A true pioneer, Gaston Huet was one of the first vignerons to adopt biodynamic practices and to focus on single-vineyard bottlings. Remaining true to the philosophy of the founders, Sarah Hwang and Jean-Bertrand Berthomé continue to craft superbly long-lived Chenin Blanc from their three vineyards. From lively sparkling to unctuous Moelleux, the Domaine Huet range is the most extraordinary way to venture into Vouvray.
