Tasting notes

---

Gaja's wines reach their pinnacle in this quintessential expression of Nebbiolo with its fragrant aromas, magnificent depth and excellent definition. The 2014 is a beautiful wine with a complex bouquet of raspberries, wild strawberries and dried roses mingled with hints of exotic spices and sweet herbs. On the palate, there are layers of sweet red fruits with a core of smooth ripe black cherries and plums. All this is balanced by a lovely freshness and wonderfully integrated tannins with a refined mineral quality which leads to an incredibly long finish. Although approachable now, this is a wine with serious depths and great of ageing potential.
