Tasting notes

'A Night in this Town' is the Folk Machine's 7th vintage of Vecino Vineyard Potter Valley Pinot Noir. The drive into Potter Valley is Idyllic with it's old farmhouses, scattered vineyards, grazing livestock, and forested hillsides. Luke Miller has been a friend and an incredibly reliable and dilligent grower of ours since 2007. He is obsessed with understanding what is going on and growing the best grapes that the site can. The 40 acres are almost entirely personally tended by him and just one other person. The attention to detail and meticulous care is why the wine is consistent and always improving. The Vecino Vineyard is certified organic by CCOF and Biodynamic by Demeter. It sits at 700 feet above sea level inbetween Lake Pillsbury and Lake Mendocino.

About the producer

One of the most original thinkers in Californian winemaking, Kenny Likitprakong started The Hobo Wine Company as a deliberately itinerant winemaker concentrating on acquiring very specific parcels of grapes, timing harvests perfectly and vinifying naturally. While he has now settled in a permanent bunkhouse for the fermentation in Santa Rosa, he keeps a fluid approach to his wines. This incredibly thrilling range is an invitation to explore the various, maybe lesser-known, terroir of Sonoma and is a testament to Kenny's deep understanding of terroir and his precise winemaking.
