Tasting notes

The colour itself is immediately appealing. Notes of melon and pretty floral blossoms abound. Broad, encompassing and ripe, this is indulgent yet never heavy. A delicious contradiction of buttery yet light mouthfeel flows into flavours of softly nuanced tangerine as well as apple and pear. A long lingering finish rounds off this utterly moreish wine.

About the producer

Few producers can claim a level of influence to almost identify with their appellation – one of those is Domaine Huet. This iconic estate has been one of the standard-bearers of Vouvray since 1928. A true pioneer, Gaston Huet was one of the first vignerons to adopt biodynamic practices and to focus on single-vineyard bottlings. Remaining true to the philosophy of the founders, Sarah Hwang and Jean-Bertrand Berthomé continue to craft superbly long-lived Chenin Blanc from their three vineyards. From lively sparkling to unctuous Moelleux, the Domaine Huet range is the most extraordinary way to venture into Vouvray.
