Tasting notes

A wine which always has plenty of character, the 2016 has sweet berry and briary plum aromas. On the palate, succulent forest fruit characters and earthy spice notes are balanced by elegant tannins which provide structure and lead to a long finish. This wine could do with a few years in bottle before drinking. Drink from 2018.

About the producer

Nestled unassumingly on a quiet street in beautiful Nuits St Georges, Faiveley, headed by the suave and welcoming Erwan, is quite an operation. One of the truly great, historic Domaines of Burgundy, with stunning cellars and many glorious holdings from Gevrey to Pommard, via some brilliant Grands Crus, Erwan and his new team have everything that a Burgundian could desire. Traditionally, the Faiveley style was uncompromising but while still unquestionably making some of the longest-lived wines in the Côte, there is today far more finesse and precision in evidence, pointing to a more careful and up-to-date approach.
