Tasting notes

After starring at this year's state banquet for Chinese Premier Xi Jinping at Buckingham Palace, there is considerably more awareness of the senior white in the d'Angerville line-up. In 2014 there seems to be added confidence to what was already an engaging, alert style. Floral notes overlay a sweetly fragranced, white fruit-driven mid-palate with saltiness on the finish. There is no sense of fat at all, a wine that is stylish and well-cut with a real sense of purpose and place. Drink from release.

About the producer

This historic 15 hectare estate is without question the finest red wine estate in the Côte de Beaune. The legacy left by the late, great Jacques d'Angerville is being carried forward in the same authoritative, passionate and committed manner by his son, Guillaume, supported by his brother-in-law Rénaud de Villette and talented régisseur François Duvivier.
