Tasting notes

"The nose on the 2014 is quite reminiscent of mature left-bank Bordeaux, with cigar box, graphite and woodsmoke – but the palate shows incredible vibrancy and freshness for the age. Ripe and opulent, the wine is full of blackcurrant, cherries, cloves, and lashings of fresh cracked black pepper, before finishing with a slight gamey character and some dark chocolate."

About the producer

Viticoltori de Conciliis is an artisanal family-owned winery based in southern Campania, representing the best of contemporary winemaking in southern Italy, with mineral, complex Fiano and rich, layered Aglianico.

The winery was formed in 1996, when siblings Luigi, Bruno, and Paola convinced their father Alessandro to stop selling their grapes and make their own wine. De Conciliis own 15 hectares of vineyards, farmed organically, set in rugged coastal foothills with altitude and sea breezes balancing out the Mediterranean heat.
