Tasting notes

Lifted aromas of apricot, fig, ripe tropical fruits and intriguingly a touch of sage. The palate is waxy and textured but with very precise acidity and a lifted, fresh character. This has incredible precision and minerality for a wine at this price point. Easily the finest Pecorino we've ever tried.

About the producer

Located in the rugged Adriatic region of Abruzzo, Cristiana Tiberio's 30 ha estate has fast gained a reputation for her unapologetic take on what the wines of her region should be. Working with very old Trebbiano Abruzzese vines and with the indigenous varieties of Montepulciano d'Abruzzo and Pecorino, she has made it her mission to craft wines that display real purity and elegance with a very distinct character. The focus here is on combining indigenous varieties and unique terroir with state-of-the-art winemaking. The result is some of the purest and long-lived wines in the region - a future Italian icon.
