Tasting notes

---

Floral, elegant and stylish. A dry white which is fresh-tasting and lively with distinct acidity. A fine partner for cold or raw fish starters with tart lemon-based sauces. Great with soups, especially cream soups, and veloutés.

About the producer

In Friuli's Colli Orientali, Alessandra Felluga produces wines which proudly showcase the Veneto wine region of north-eastern Italy. Characterised by intense fruit and acidity, thanks to low yields, and minerality from the rich soil, Castello di Buttrio wines are best known for their single-variety bottlings of indigenous grapes - white Friulano and Ribolla Gialla, red Refosco and Pignolo. However, it also produces excellent Chardonnay and Sauvignon Blanc, as well as growing Merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon, for use in the red of the two blends.
