Tasting notes

Appealing and complex, this wine has an attractive bouquet of strawberries and wild flowers. On the palate, lovely forest fruits and silky textures are supported by a refreshing mineral character which leads to a long finish. This wine is particularly bright and elegant in 2017. Drink from 2021.

About the producer

Nestled unassumingly on a quiet street in beautiful Nuits St Georges, Faiveley, headed by the suave and welcoming Erwan, is quite an operation. One of the truly great, historic Domaine of Burgundy, with stunning cellars and many glorious holdings from Gevrey to Pommard, via some brilliant Grands Crus, Erwan and his new team have everything that a Burgundian could desire. Traditionally, the Faiveley style was uncompromising but while still unquestionably making some of the longest-lived wines in the Côte, there is today far more finesse and precision in evidence, pointing to a more careful and up-to-date approach.
