Tasting notes

Marc Morey owns most of this Premier Cru apart from one tiny plot in the middle. Located at the top of the hill, a place which was once a chalk mine, the thin soils produce elegantly floral wines with a tightly structured palate. This has a rich mineral core with great tension, very pure fruit and long refreshing finish.

About the producer

Bernard Mollard always comes across as a remarkably relaxed man, which is not a common trait for a fruit farmer! His jovial demeanour and unpretentious manner always make for an enjoyable visit and his wines are similarly friendly and inviting. Bernard makes no apology for making wines to enjoy in their youth and his Chassagne's have been hugely popular with our customers for many years now.
