Tasting notes

From one of the finest parcels in Meursault, just beneath the Clos des Perrières, this shows the minerality of Perrières with the weight and attraction of Charmes. The 0.2 hectare plot at Faiveley is a gem in their line-up of whites. In 2015, this is rounded and shows off some impressive scale. Notes of citrus, waxy yellow fruits, acacia and honeysuckle show off the friendliness of Charmes, whilst a deep mineral core holds balance and tension. A touch of oak keeps the wine elegant and allows the fruit expression to shine through. Impressively long finish. Drink from 2021.

About the producer

Nestled unassumingly on a quiet street in beautiful Nuits St Georges, Faiveley, headed by the suave and welcoming Erwan, is quite an operation. One of the truly great, historic domaines of Burgundy, with stunning cellars and many glorious holdings from Gevrey to Pommard, via some brilliant Grands Crus, Erwan and his new team have everything that a Burgundian could desire. Traditionally, the Faiveley style was uncompromising but while still unquestionably making some of the longest-lived wines in the Côte, there is today far more finesse and precision in evidence, pointing to a more careful and up-to-date approach.
