Tasting notes

This single vineyard Mulderbosch combines extraordinary power and concentration with incredible finesse and elegance. The oak is so beautifully integrated it is barely perceptible, the laser like acidity raises goosebumps and reflects its coastal origins, while emphasising the apple, citrus and spice notes.

Armit Wines

Light in appearance, Block A immediately reveals its flighty citrus aromatic profile on the first nose, and on closer inspection reveals subtle talc notes. With a distinct honeycomb edge, the palate however displays incredible freshness and a bright, lifted character. Delicate spice, limey acidity and a pithy texture all combine to produce an alluring, lingering finish.
