Tasting notes

BLOCK A Light in appearance, Block A immediately reveals its flighty citrus aromatic profile on the first nose, and on closer inspection reveals subtle talc notes. With a distinct honeycomb edge, the palate however displays incredible freshness and a bright, lifted character. Delicate spice, limey acidity and a pithy texture all combine to produce an alluring, lingering finish. BLOCK S2 S2 speaks of lanolin and ripe tropical fruits. The nose abounds with delicate herbal elements and aromatic sandalwood spice. The broad palate has firm structure which is neatly underpinned by subtle, layered acidity. Well after the final sip, warm flavours of candied orange peel and cinnamon spice gently prevail. BLOCK W Owing to its proximity to the ocean, block W's vibrant nose possesses a bracing saline quality lending it freshness and vitality. A fine bead of mineral texture courses the length of the palate, affirming its granite origins. Savoury flavours are neatly offset by succulent nectarine fruit that sets the tone for a long, mouth-watering finish.
