Tasting notes

Crafted only in very tiny quantities and when conditions allow from top quality berries affected by noble rot. Le Mont's quintessential grace and poise is in abundance here. Deep, complex and elegantly fresh with a core of wild honeysuckle, orange blossom and softly caramelised apple and pear. The texture is full and complete; a sinewy, smoky quality combines with richness from the botrytis playing perfect harmony to crisp, spiced citrus notes. The 2015 Le Mont 1ere Trie is undoubtedly a mythical wine from an unparalleled vineyard and vintage.

About the producer

Few producers can claim a level of influence to almost identify with their appellation – one of those is Domaine Huet. This iconic estate has been one of the standard-bearers of Vouvray since 1928. A true pioneer, Gaston Huet was one of the first vigneron to adopt biodynamic practices and to focus on single-vineyard bottlings. Remaining true to the philosophy of the founders, Sarah Hwang and Jean-Bertrand Berthomé continue to craft superbly long-lived Chenin Blanc from their three vineyards. From lively sparkling to unctuous Moelleux, the Domaine Huet range is the most extraordinary way to venture into Vouvray.
