

2015 Vouvray Le Mont Moelleux

Domaine Huet, Loire, France

Product details

Vintage:	2015	Drinking:	2017
Producer:	Domaine Huet	Alcohol:
Region:	Loire	Variety:
Country:	France

Tasting notes

An alluring yellow amber hue hints at the delights that this wine has to offer. Before the glass even approaches one's nose, a swathe of grapefruit pith and pure, clean honey introduce themselves. Nuanced layers emerge with aeration including ripe peach, spun sugar, nectarine, juicy pear and even a hint of mango. This is a wine that builds slowly but soon carries you away with its soaring crest of acidity that cleanses all the plump sugared fruit and marries beautifully with the accents of spicy botrytised apricot. The texture, depth, complexity, weight and impeccable balance all interconnect and overlap in a way that is quite difficult to do justice in print. Arresting now, and frankly hard to resist, but with decades ahead of it this is a cuvée to hoard and savour.

About the producer

Few producers can claim a level of influence to almost identify with their appellation – one of those is Domaine Huet. This iconic estate has been one of the standard-bearers of Vouvray since 1928. A true pioneer, Gaston Huet was one of the first vignerons to adopt biodynamic practices and to focus on single-vineyard bottlings. Remaining true to the philosophy of the founders, Sarah Hwang and Jean-Bertrand Berthomé continue to craft superbly long-lived Chenin Blanc from their three vineyards. From lively sparkling to unctuous Moelleux, the Domaine Huet range is the most extraordinary way to venture into Vouvray.