Tasting notes

Fragrant quite charismatic fruit led by juicy bursting blackcurrant, then soft florals. Texture begins silky and soon surges forward in stature gaining weight and bite. This carries through from its stellar aromatic qualities that can also be found on the palate too. Succulent fruit with great acidity and an enchantingly, long, finish. Great form with purity and a sense of completeness that is hard to describe. Pioneering biodynamic principles and supreme dedication to quality have all come together in this vintage to create something very special indeed. Wow. Score: 18
