Tasting notes

The Vaurorent vineyard neighbours the Grands Crus resulting in powerful and mineral wines. On the nose, green apple and floral scents lead to a persistent palate with mouth-watering grapefruit and oyster shell characters on the finish. Drink from 2019.

About the producer

William Fèvre is one of Chablis's most respected domaines and is credited with putting this region of Chardonnay vines, William began purchasing parcels of the region's Premier and Grand Cru vineyards that had fallen out of fashion. He quickly grew the estate to an impressive 50 hectares and established a fine reputation for his white Burgundy. He retired in 1998 and sold the estate to négociant Bouchard, who installed Didier Séguier as winemaker.
