Tasting notes

---

An incredibly intense, mesmeric nose of smoky apples and wet stone minerality. There is huge depth and concentration to the palate revealing creamy layered apple, peach, wet stones and a delightful chalky texture. The rich swirling depths of fruit are enhanced by the pure, laser like acidity and the finish is effortlessly long. Drink from 2021.

About the producer

One producer who expresses more than others the spirit of Chassagne-Montrachet. With pure, elegant wines that are always approachable in youth but have an incredible capacity of ageing and developing in the cellar for decades. Jean-Marc and Claudine Blain consistently produce some exemplary wines at village level and release some of the most sought-after Grand Crus from their tiny holdings of Caillerets.
