Tasting notes

Spiced apples, and a smoky, chalky minerality leads to an attractive, flighty palate with creamy, green apple, spring blossom and jasmine which is enhanced by a fresh, crisp acidity. There is an ethereal character to the wine which does nothing to detract from the attractive length. Drink from 2019.

About the producer

Bernard Mollard always comes across as a remarkably relaxed man, which is not a common trait for a fruit farmer! His jovial demeanour and unpretentious manner always makes for an enjoyable visit and his wines are similarly friendly and inviting. Bernard makes no apology for making wines to enjoy in their youth and his Chassagnes have been hugely popular with Armit clients now for many years.
