Tasting notes

Carougeot is located just below the village of Gevrey-Chambertin and produces attractive wines with succulent flavours. Antonin Guyon's cuvée has an expansive bouquet of wild forest fruits and dark plums. On the palate, smooth tannins and supple cassis and dark cherry flavours are balanced by a refreshing redcurrant note. This wine will be delicious in a few years. Drink from 2019.

About the producer

In the 1960s, Antonin Guyon started buying vineyards in Gevrey-Chambertin and Meursault. A decade later, his son Dominique continued his father's legacy, adding some 350 plots belonging to almost 80 different owners from the commune of Meuilley in the Hautes Côtes de Nuits. Today the two brothers, Michel and Dominique, look after a unique range of wines covering more than fifteen different appellations. Their wines are an example of precise, traditional winemaking that let the nuances of their terroir express themselves.
