Tasting notes

A very polished and intense Mazis which opens to reveal a brooding bouquet of dark red fruits with delicate hints of smoke and spices mingled with violets and flowers. The palate has a sensual quality with its smooth, broad textures and silky sweet plum and dark cassis flavours balanced by an energetic mineral freshness which gives it such length and poise. This wine is every bit as powerful as the 2015 but is more charming and elegant. Drink from 2023.

About the producer

Nestled unassumingly on a quiet street in beautiful Nuits St Georges, Faiveley, headed by the suave and welcoming Erwan, is quite an operation. One of the truly great, historic Domaine of Burgundy, with stunning cellars and many glorious holdings from Gevrey to Pommard, via some brilliant Grands Crus, Erwan and his new team have everything that a Burgundian could desire. Traditionally, the Faiveley style was uncompromising but while still unquestionably making some of the longest-lived wines in the Côte, there is today far more finesse and precision in evidence, pointing to a more careful and up-to-date approach.
