Tasting notes

Attractive summer meadow flowers and yellow fruits on the nose are followed by bright citrus qualities with a hint of oyster shell. On the palate, delicate chalky mineral notes, typical of this terroir, balance soft green apple fruit flavours and there is a hint of butter and toast on the finish. Refined and energetic, this wine will be delicious in a few years but will age for longer. Drink from 2019.

About the producer

Nestled unassumingly on a quiet street in beautiful Nuits St Georges, Faiveley, headed by the suave and welcoming Erwan, is quite an operation. One of the truly great, historic Domaine of Burgundy, with stunning cellars and many glorious holdings from Gevrey to Pommard, via some brilliant Grands Crus, Erwan and his new team have everything that a Burgundian could desire. Traditionally, the Faiveley style was uncompromising but while still unquestionably making some of the longest-lived wines in the Côte, there is today far more finesse and precision in evidence, pointing to a more careful and up-to-date approach.
