Tasting notes

The Brigue Signature Rosé offers a nose full of flavors. Surprising in the mouth by its depth and its volume. A beautiful finish focused on citrus flavors and white peach.

About the producer

Château de Brigue is a family venture which began in 1970. Fernand, the son of the founder Roger Brun, along with his brothers Jean-Michel, Christian, Olivier and Frederic Brun are third generation winemakers at the estate which is one of the largest family run wineries in Provence.

The domain extends over 120 hectares of vineyards in the heart of the beautiful Côte de Provence situated near the Nationale 7 road, between Aix en Provence, Cannes, and Saint Tropez.

With 2,000 olive trees, the domain also locally produces virgin olive oil, full of flavours of the Mediterranean.
