Tasting notes

An Armit Wines exclusive and a Faiveley monopole high on the slopes of Gevrey, this elegant and appealing wine has a delicate bouquet of sweet plums and blackcurrants with hints of spice. On the palate, supple cherry flavours and fine tannins are balanced by a refreshing raspberry and cassis character which leads to an impressive concentration and a lifted finish. A wine which should be approachable in a few years, it has the energy and structure for long ageing. Drink from 2021.

About the producer

Nestled unassumingly on a quiet street in beautiful Nuits St Georges, Faiveley, headed by the suave and welcoming Erwan, is quite an operation. One of the truly great, historic domaines of Burgundy, with stunning cellars and many glorious holdings from Gevrey to Pommard, via some brilliant Grands Crus, Erwan and his new team have everything that a Burgundian could desire. Traditionally, the Faiveley style was uncompromising but while still unquestionably making some of the longest-lived wines in the Côte, there is today far more finesse and precision in evidence, pointing to a more careful and up-to-date approach.
