Tasting notes

Bursting with red fruit. Aromas of fresh raspberries and ripe red cherries on the nose, with juicy cranberries on the palate and a hint of cherry blossom. This is focused with excellent fruit concentration and lively acidity.

About the producer

The estate, which was originally founded during the time of the Romans, has been cared for and maintained by the Vic family since 1905. They have a respect for the land and tradition, whilst understanding the need for innovation and modern technique, so blend elements of each together in the wine making process. Both traditional and new world storage are used, within a cellar which contains more than 300 wooden barrels, renewed every 3 years.

In the early 90s, Jérôme and wife Aurélie took charge of the family business with a determination to carry on the efforts of previous generations, continuing to improve the culture of the vines and the transformation of the grapes to quality wine.
