Tasting notes

A wine which always has plenty of character, the 2017 has red berry and plum aromas. On the palate, succulent forest fruit characters and subtle spice notes are balanced by elegant tannins which provide structure and lead to a long finish. This will be approachable earlier than 2016. Drink from 2020.

About the producer

Nestled unassumingly on a quiet street in beautiful Nuits St Georges, Faiveley, headed by the suave and welcoming Erwan, is quite an operation. One of the truly great, historic domaines of Burgundy, with stunning cellars and many glorious holdings from Gevrey to Pommard, via some brilliant Grands Crus, Erwan and his new team have everything that a Burgundian could desire. Traditionally, the Faiveley style was uncompromising but while still unquestionably making some of the longest-lived wines in the Côte, there is today far more finesse and precision in evidence, pointing to a more careful and up-to-date approach.
