Tasting notes

"A rich and powerful core of fruit, with real depth of flavour. Tannins are bigger, as you would expect. True power vintage in velvet gloves. An oxymoron wine as it has real power but so beautifully elegant. Is this a ballerina? So graceful yet incredible strength of structure... I could go on. Classic Roagna excellence."

About the producer

The Roagna story started in the late 1800s when Luca Roagna's great-grandfathers were part of a small group of pioneers that started making Barbaresco as we know it today. Luca, currently representing the 5th generation of winemakers, is taking the estate from strength to strength. He works with the utmost respect for his land: old vines, massale selection, and the promotion of biodiversity are all at the core of his approach in the vineyards. In the winery, long ageing, wild yeast, and long macerations ensure that the essence of his terroir is expressed in the bottle.
