Tasting notes

80% Vermentino and 20% Chardonnay, this wine is a true representation of Agricola Punica's style, combining Sardinian tradition with international finesse. The name is taken from the Phoenecian god of the Sun, a nod to the ancient ruins that can be found near Punica's vineyards in southern Sardinia, and the bright, fresh character of the wine.

About the producer

Agricola Punica is based in the rugged hills of southern Sardinia. The project was created as a collaboration between the Sardinian Santadi family; Dr Giacomo Tachis, the oenologist considered the architect of the Super-Tuscan movement; and Marquis Incisa Della Rocchetta, winemaker of Sassicaia. In the words of Antonio Galloni: "how's that for an all-star team?" The purple capsule and round logo of Barrua is a subtle nod to these illustrious origins, while the name Agricola Punica references the ancient Punic civilisation – whose ruins are found across Sardinia.
