Tasting notes

"Spiced black cherries mix with shavings of cedar, clove and rosemary as the 2021 Valpolicella Superiore Ripasso evolves in the glass. It possesses incredible energy despite a solid core of ultra-ripe wildberry fruits and a saturation of bitter cocoa that infuses the palate toward the close. The 2021 resonates with zesty tension and a tart blackberry intensity, yet leaves the mouth watering for more. Full-throttle yet beautifully balanced."

About the producer

Musella is set amidst the beautiful, green hills of San Martino Buon Albergo, near Verona. Its vineyards span three distinct hillside locations on south- and west-facing slopes, offering a remarkable diversity of soil types: the Monte del Drago, Perlar, and Palazzina hills. Maddalena Pasqua, the exceptionally talented winemaker, leads the estate. Her love of nature and deep respect for the soil have made her one of Italy's most passionate ambassadors of biodynamic viticulture. The result is wines of extraordinary elegance and precision, full of vitality and tension.
