Tasting notes

"This wine is mostly Sangiovese with a touch of Cabernet Sauvignon. The Petrolo 2022 Torrione reveals a luminous ruby tinge and follows through with bold cherry, blackcurrant and crushed rose. This vintage brings forth more textural heft in terms of mouthfeel, and it feels a little richer on the finish. You get excellent quality at a still-affordable price."

94 points. Monica Lerner, Wine Advocate

"The 2022 Torrione is a bold, fruity wine with terrific up-front intensity and tons of charm. Crushed red berry fruit, rose petal, cinnamon, new leather and cedar fill out the layers. This approachable, juicy Torrione is a delight."

About the producer

Petrolo is located in the Val d'Arno within the Tuscan hills, an area not widely known. A family-owned estate with 26ha of vineyards, located in the hills of eastern Chianti, just outside the boundary of Chianti Classico, Petrolo is located between 250 and 450m above sea level. Often described as one of Tuscany's Cult wineries, this Super Tuscan estate has a history dating back to the 1700s. However, it was in the 1990s that Petrolo made a name for itself amongst the leaders of the Tuscan revolution, thanks to its expression of Merlot, Galatrona, first produced in 1994.
