Tasting notes

"A blend of Maladière, Les Clos, and Les Nazoires, this was the only wine vinified in amphora in 2024. Delicate and graceful on the nose, with juicy red fruit on the palate, lovely texture, and a firm backbone. It’s very attractive now and will be delicious to enjoy from release and over the next few years."

About the producer

Established in 1550 in Chambolle-Musigny, Boursot Père & Fils embodies heritage and distinction. Romaric and Romuald, the 15th generation to manage the 4-hectare estate, combine modern winemaking techniques with traditional tools such as amphorae. Committed to sustainable viticulture and ancestral knowledge, the Boursot family produces wines that truly reflect Burgundy’s rich soils. Their meticulous attention to detail and dedication to excellence result in a portfolio celebrated for its elegance.
