Tasting notes

Being Frizzante in style, this Prosecco has a lighter, finer mousse which makes it the perfect wine for an aperitive. In the glass you'll find delicious aromas of white stone fruit and golden apple with lively acidity to refresh your palate. A perfect glass of fizz to enjoy on its own or alongside some some canapés. Think fresh figs and prosciutto, a North Italian favourite.

About the producer

Biancavigna is very much a family affair and was established in 2004, with Elena Moschetta at the helm and her brother Enrico making the wine. They manage 12 ha of vineyards located in 3 different areas: Conegliano, San Pietro di Feletto and Soligo, some of which have been tended by several generations of their family. The quality of the wines reflects the absolute dedication and commitment of all at Biancavigna to the production of wines of such calibre.
